Somos 'Blanquito', Multiregional, 2018/19

An intriguing mix of Arneis, Garganega and Verdelho – never heard of them? That's ok! They combine for a light + textural wine – think green apples and minerality. Approachable and fun

Somos Naranjito, McLaren Vale, SA, 2019

An orange wine meaning it was made with white grapes (100% Verdelho) that have been left to ferment with their skins. This results in a wine that appears as a vibrant orange and is full of toffee apple, baked pear and baking spice notes. Intriguing and compelling
